

Social and Personal

Commencement festivities at the colleges and schools all over the State will engage the attention of the young people here and a great many Richmond girls will be present at the beautiful balls and functions incident to their closing. Miss Conway Fleming has gone to Annapolis, Md., where she will attend the dances given at the Naval Academy this week. Miss Janet Jones also will be in Annapolis for June week. Miss Charlotte Jones, one of the debutantes of the past winter season, will attend finals at the Virginia Military Institute, the middle of the month, and Miss Emma Conquest will also go to Lexington to attend the balls given at that institution at finals. Miss Etta Tallaferr, of Baltimore, who was a guest of Miss Katherine Hagan in Richmond for several weeks last winter, will also attend finals at the Virginia Military Institute.

Leaving for Washington.
Mrs. Herbert Mann will accompany her mother, Mrs. F. H. Agnew, of Pennsylvania, to Washington to-day at noon. Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Agnew will be in Washington for several days before returning to Richmond. Mrs. Mann has been entertained a great deal during her visit to her daughter here, and some of the most charming of the spring affairs have been given in her honor.

White House Garden Party.
Says the Washington Post of Saturday: "Mrs. Taft was hostess Friday afternoon at the last of the White House garden parties, which have been the most interesting feature on the social calendar for several weeks of May. The day was perfect and the White House lawns were at their best."

"The President received with Mrs. Taft, and Colonel Spencer Cosby made introductions. Dr. Rhodes, the President's special aide, stood behind him, and the other White House aides were placed at intervals from the entrance of the garden to the receiving line to direct the guests. They all wore their summer uniforms of white duck, as did all the army and navy men at the party."

"Mrs. Taft wore a beautiful gown of shaded black and green chiffon, the black part painted in roses. The gown was made over white satin and was trimmed with black satin and lace. She wore a smart black hat, trimmed with a single sage green plume, placed directly in front. The President was in a gray frock suit, and had a pink carnation in his buttonhole."

"The Marine Band was stationed at the entrance to the garden, and the scarlet coats of the musicians lent an effective touch of color to the attractive setting."

"Another bright touch was the gaily colored tent placed to the left of the garden slope, where punch and sandwiches were served."

"Directly back of the President and Mrs. Taft, under a clump of trees, was a long table decorated with large bou-

Children's Tub Dresses

Special sale (on third floor).
Prices range from 50c up.

Kaufmann & Co.

quets of pink peonies, where ices and cakes were served.

Miss Helen Taft did not stand near her father and mother, but held a court of her own under another large tree a little distance from them. Miss Taft looked charming in an exquisite gown of white batiste, embroidered and trimmed with lace. Her hat was white and adorned with large bows of primrose silk ribbon."

In the North.
Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Estes are registered at the Hotel Marlborough, in New York City for a few days before going to Atlantic City for an extended stay. Mr. and Mrs. Estes have recently left Richmond to make their home in New York.

Mrs. W. W. Tuke and children left last Thursday for the North, after spending a month with relatives in Barton Heights. Mrs. Tuke was accompanied by Miss Mabel Tuke, who will spend the months of June and July visiting friends and relatives in Tamaqua and Philadelphia.

To Give Play.

The board of the Sheltering Arms and some of the young girls of Richmond and Glinter Park will present Helen Sherman Griffith's play, "For Love or Money," which will be followed by a Japanese Garden party on the nights of June 6 and 7, for Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. The younger set of Richmond and Glinter Park will serve in Japanese costume. The public is invited to attend this play out at Glinter Park, 320, The Japanese Garden party is as follows: Miss Frances B. Scott, Miss Sallie Anderson, Mr. Ben Alsop, Mrs. L. D. Aylet, Mrs. H. W. Bassett, Mrs. S. T. Beveridge, Miss Maria Blair, Mrs. J. C. Boshart, Mrs. H. C. Boudard, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. J. A. Cabell, Mrs. T. A. Cary, Mrs. Thomas Cary Johnson, Mrs. J. B. Kidd, Mrs. Crawford Reed, Mrs. D. A. Kuyk, Mrs. Lorraine Reed, Mrs. C. P. Lee, Mrs. H. Lee, Mrs. W. H. Nelson, Mrs. T. Williams, Mrs. F. W. Scott, Mrs. D. T. Williams, Mrs. Thos. Christliff, Mrs. Charles G. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. Wirt Taylor, Mrs. Lorraine Kuttin, Mrs. C. P. Lee, Mrs. Ramon Garcia, Mrs. Robert Reynolds.

The cast is Miss Anne King, Miss Jervey Fisher, Miss Belle Keay, Miss Lucille Nelson, Robert King, George Parsons and Frank Sutton.

The dancers are Miss Crenshaw, Miss Sheppard, Miss Tarn, Miss Drewry, Miss Watkins, Mrs. Warlick, Mr. Dixon, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Lefew, Mr. Hutchins, Mr. Crenshaw and Mr. Lee. Miss Crenshaw and Miss Sheppard will do a Russian dance in Russian costume, which is very attractive, and Miss Carrie Carlton will sing.

Approaching Weddings.

Two weddings of considerable interest to a large number of Richmond people will be solemnized Wednesday at 12:30 P. M. John Peter Saul, Jr., of the Salem, will be married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Hafford, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hamer, in Bristol, Tenn. Mr. Saul's only attendant will be Dr. Royal G. Connaday, of Abingdon, and the matrons of honor will be Mrs. Ben Dobbin, of Kingsport, Tenn., and Mrs. J. S. H. Hafford, of Bristol. The bridesmaids will be Miss Howard C. Gilmer, of Abingdon, sister to the groom. The wedding march will be played by Miss Annabel Morris, of Stonewall Jackson Institute, Abingdon.

A 9 o'clock Wednesday evening in College Lutheran Church, Miss Irma Killian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. Killian, and Maxwell F. Woltz will be married. Rev. Chas. K. Hutton officiating. The best man will be Roscoe Woltz, of Huntington, W. Va., brother to the bridegroom, and the maid of honor, Miss Mattie Rowan, of Union, W. Va. The bridesmaids will be Miss Georgia Crockett, of Tazewell, Miss Mary Turner, of Albemarle county, Miss Leonarda Woltz, of Eagle Rock, Miss Edmonia Gray, of Roanoke, and Miss Ida Kelly and Roxie Dillard, of Salem. The groomsmen will be Messrs. R. Holman Willis, of Roanoke, Spiller and Cash, of Fincastle, Messrs. F. C. Wiley and W. B. Tinsley, of Salem, and Mr. Roderick Woltz, of Eagle Rock.

Interesting Musicals.
There will be a musicale at College View Mission corner of Hancock and Clay Streets to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. A delightful program has been arranged with Miss Lucy Gwynne as soloist. Mrs. Frank Duke, violinist; Mrs. George Whitfield, pianist; and Miss Ruby Floyd, reader.

Box Party Last Week.
The Delta Alpha Sigma Sorority of the Women's college entertained the Phi Phi Delta Sorority at a box party at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening. The boxes occupied by the guests were decorated with ribbons and banners and a delightful little supper followed the performance at the academy. Those present were Misses Bertha Furr, of Broad Run; Lantina Williams, of Kiltrell, N. C.; Della Houser, of Natural bridge; Evelyn May, of Waverly; Margaret Hartzel, of Savannah, Ga.; Josephine Hartzel, of Jellison, Tenn.; Alice Houser, of Natural bridge; Turline Thomas, of Lyons, Ga.; Virginia Seay, of Shores; Helen Brown, of Hilton Hedge; Frances Herring, of Frederick's Hall; Lucille Gray, of Wakama; Mildred Woodward, Mary Woodward, of Warfield; Palmer, all of West Point; Lois Quisenberry, Gladys Quisenberry, of Hinton, Va.; Ruth Little, of Hogen; Charlotteville, Florence Henning, of Winchester; Mary Hutcheson, of Over; Margaret Hathaway, of White Stone; Nina Ludy, of Luray; Evelyn Martin, of Stuart; and Mrs. W. P. Bray, of Wakama.

Chaperones were Mrs. W. B. Bray and Mrs. C. Furr, of Broad Run. Meeting To-day.
The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with Mrs. Kate L. Proctor, 1917 Barton Avenue. This is the last meeting of the season, and all members are urged to be present.

King's Daughters' Meeting.
Mrs. Clarence Burton State president of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons, will meet with "In the Service of the King" Circle of King's Daughters this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Abner Gordon, 2500 East Broad Street. All members are urged to attend.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. Duncan Edwards, of New York, is visiting Mrs. H. Logan Golsan, at her apartment at the Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garlick, W. H. Lucke and the Misses Lucke have moved into their new home, 603 Seminary Avenue, Glinter Park.

Mrs. Mary Kain, who has been spending some time in New York, is now the guest of friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Clay Dewry is ill at the Memorial Hospital in this city.

Garnett S. Sites, of Staunton, is visiting friends here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ellett are sailing on board the steamship Saxonia for Europe and the Holy Land with a party of Richmond friends.

E. P. Nunnally has returned from Pittsburgh, Pa., where he attended a meeting of the Knights Templar.

Miss Dorothy Lettich, of this city, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Lettich, in Waynesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cox, of 2919 Marshall Street, left yesterday for Cincinnati, Chicago and New York.

Miss Blanche Burford will join a party of friends traveling through Europe for the summer months.

Miss Jane Marshall Taylor, of Winston-Salem, N. C., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, at 1101 Grove Avenue.

J. Dickson Polley, Jr., of 114 South First Street, is quite sick at the Memorial Hospital.

Miss Bruce Parker, who has been the guest of friends in Suffolk, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Romaine Johnston, of Elko, spent the week-end with Miss Dorothy Fox at 3293 Grove Avenue.

Mrs. Harry Tyler and children, of Tono, are visiting Mrs. Horace Shepperson at her home in Norwood.

Mrs. Mark W. Pevsey, who was recently operated on for appendicitis at the Retreat for the Sick, is now convalescing.

Miss Anna Scott has returned to Gordonsville, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. R. F. Berkley, on North Tenth Street.

Mrs. R. R. Powell left Saturday for Mountain View, where she will spend the month of June.

Miss Margaret Martin and Mrs. Willie Clowes, who have been in Richmond hospitals for treatment, have returned to their homes in Gordonsville.

A. G. Yarrid, of 217 North Fifth Street, has gone to New York. He will return on June 5.

Commencement Flowers
Delicate flowers of freshly cut flowers, fragrant and beautiful—here from $2.50 up.

HAMMOND FLORIST

Graduation Footwear for Boys and Girls. Everything that is new.

Alheimers

Beginning June 1, this store will close 1 o'clock Saturday and 5 o'clock other days for the summer months.

SYDNOR & HUNDLEY, INC.,
Grace and Seventh.

Bien and Harding Inc.
Women's and Misses' Outer Garments

SPECIAL SATURDAY SHOE OFFERINGS
Seymour Sycle
11 West Broad.

For Oil Cooking and Heating Stoves
See
N. KLEIN & SON, INC.
620 East Broad.

McKee Refrigerators
at
Jones Bros. & Co.
Incorporated
1418-1420 E. Main St.

J. B. Mosby & Co.
Midsummer prices prevail in the Garment Section.

Tragle's Vacation Sale
Continued This Week

SALE:
$5 Men's Silk Shirts Now
$3.50

Fonticello

GENUINE RELIEF IS THE EXPERIENCE

Of the Many Richmond Citizens Who Have Tried "Tona Vita" for Physical Ills.

Mr. John A. Scott, of 604 Catherine Street, city, made the following statement recently in connection with "Tona Vita," the tonic that has lately been introduced with such great success in Richmond.

Mr. Scott said: "I had been in very poor health for some time. I suffered from stomach trouble, my appetite was very poor, and I had no energy at all. I was as tired in the morning as upon retiring at night. In fact, I was very badly run down."

"I heard of this new tonic, 'Tona Vita,' and decided to give it a trial. I have only taken it ten days, and feel like a different person. I can now eat anything and enjoy my meals. I sleep fine, and am regaining my lost energy. 'Tona Vita' certainly verifies all claims made for it."

The remarkable tonic, "Tona Vita," will break all records in Richmond, as it has done in other parts of the country. People, just beginning to realize what a great preparation it is, are flocking upon thousands in this and other large cities are afflicted with general debility. The entire system becomes affected in such cases and nervousness, stomach trouble, headache, backache, despondency and loss of vitality result. "Tona Vita" will work wonders in such cases in a remarkably short time.

The company manufacturing this preparation have predicted all along that every man or woman affected with nervous debility who would give "Tona Vita" a fair test would become a walking advertisement for this remedy, and judging from the results in Richmond they are correct. Any one who has been a constant sufferer from debility is sure to tell about it when he finds something that will give him genuine relief.

The Polk Miller Drug Company, 834 E. Main Street, have the agency for "Tona Vita" in Richmond.

RANDOLPH-MACON ACADEMY CLOSES

Baccalaureate Sermon Is Preached by Bishop Collins Denny.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bedford City, Va., June 2.—The baccalaureate sermon for Randolph-Macon Academy was delivered by Bishop Collins Denny, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the chapel of the academy, which was handsomely draped in lemon and black veiling, the school colors. The discourse was very scholarly, able and eloquent.

The finals took place in the same place on Thursday evening.

An invocation was offered by Rev. W. W. Lear, D. D., of the Methodist Church. Judge R. C. Jackson, of Roanoke, was the orator of the occasion, making a splendid address on "Self-Appreciation." Professor E. S. Smith, the principal of the academy since its establishment, stated that the record of students winning distinctions this session was higher than ever before, and the number of foreign students receiving honors in colleges and universities was larger than in any previous year.

Professor H. M. Brent spoke appropriately in giving the list of those receiving special mention for study with an average of over 94 per cent. These were Bradford, Briggs, Burks, Carlton, Clements, Cosner, Dow, Edwards, Elmore, Evans, Furr, Gaskins, Gilles, Grodz, Grace, Hall, Hill, Hopper, Kennedy, Kerns, Kinzer, Lester, Lebia, Lloyd, Maloney, Manry, Moseley, Moss, Polindexter, Reames, Rose, Rudin, Rum-bough, Salmon, Smith, G. Smith, H. S. Sumner, Sumnerland, Tarr, Turley, Turpin, Walker, M. Wise, White, Whitehead, Woodin.

The senior scholarship medal, given by Mrs. J. W. Bradberry, of Petersburg, as a memorial to her husband, a trustee of the Randolph-Macon system of schools, was won by Harry K. Smith, of Maryland.

The medal for improvement in debate in the European society to J. W. Wooden, of New York; in the Washington society to W. W. Thomas, of Virginia.

On the roll of honor for study were Beale, Bradford, Briggs, Burks, Carlton, Clements, Cosner, Dow, Edwards, Elmore, Evans, Furr, Gaskins, Gilles, Grodz, Grace, Hall, Hill, Hopper, Kennedy, Kerns, Kinzer, Lester, Lebia, Lloyd, Maloney, Manry, Moseley, Moss, Polindexter, Reames, Rose, Rudin, Rum-bough, Salmon, Smith, G. Smith, H. S. Sumner, Sumnerland, Tarr, Turley, Turpin, Walker, M. Wise, White, Whitehead, Woodin.

There were fifty-five students on the roll of honor for deportment throughout the session.

The commencement exercises of the high school were conducted in Belmont Theatre Thursday evening, J. B. Guy, the principal, presiding. A piano trio was performed by Misses Jean Clark, Katherine Page and Belle Jordan. A prayer was offered by Rev. J. H. Grey, of the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. W. W. Hamilton, D. D., of Lynchburg, delivered the address. There were four full graduates to whom Mr. Guy presented diplomas. They were Misses Jean and Julia Graves, Irvine Guy and Carol Ruan. Miss Willie Saunders was partial graduate.

Richard Saunders, who received special mention in all studies, received special mention for being present every day of every session for six years and always punctual.

There was a long list of distinguished pupils in the branches of study, deportment and prompt attendance.

The following special prizes were awarded for best composition on "The Fly," the prize, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bell, was awarded by the judges to Harold Fraine, presented by Professor E. S. Smith. Honorable mention was given to Alice Eubank and Clarice Canada. The medal offered by the local chapter, D. A. R., for the best essay on the "Part Virginia Played in the American Revolution" was presented by Miss Carol Ruan and was awarded to Mrs. H. H. Grey.

The medal offered by the William R. Terry Chapter, U. D. C., for a composition on "Stonewall Jackson and His Valley Campaign" was won by Miss Junie Graves, presented by Mr. Hunter Miller.

Miss Jean Graves was the valedictorian, acquitting herself most ably. The honor students were presented a wreath of flowers and many pretty gifts.

PRINCE HAS SHAVED HIS WHISKERS OFF

Face Now Adorned With Nothing But Particularly Fierce Mustache.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

THE reigning Prince of Monaco, James E. Crocker, dealt the Prince a full beard. It may be that he will therefore, to draw attention to the fact that he has shaved it off, leaving nothing but a particularly fierce long, dark, bushy mustache. The late King Humbert, which seems, however, to emphasize the retiring character of his chin. Another notable thing is that he has a white beard, which is a sign of age, and about making sacrifices, good of his celebrated yacht which, named "Princess Alice" for his second wife, the American daughter of a New Orleans banker, Michael Heine, had continued under the same name long after his judicial separation from her.

He has now a new vessel, wonderfully equipped with oceanographic cruises, entitled "Hilbrandt" Anglie, "Swallow."

The prince is taking a leading part in the peace movement, as might be expected of a potentate who has just disbanded his glittering legions, some eighty strong! He has been visiting various courts to further the movement, and a few weeks ago appeared at that of Vienna, where he was barred for many years after the annulment of his first marriage, and here on now his presence must be a great encouragement to the peace cause. He has, nevertheless, consented to give a small dinner in his honor, for one of the principal dignitaries of the peace movement, the late Emperor of Austria, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

The prince's mother was a royal princess of the House of Saxe-Coburg, and she was married to Monaco's first prince, Prince Tassilo Festetics, who is happily married to Monaco's first princess, Hamilton, only sister of the late Emperor of Austria.

Wedding Gifts

We show those attractive and exclusive articles which "stand out" among the rest. Our moderate prices account for the constant extension of our patronage.

Schwarzschild Bros.
Richmond's Leading Jewelers,
Second and Broad Sts.

WILL BE OPENED DURING SUMMER

Conference Grounds for Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Workers at Black Mountain.

Asheville, N. C., June 2.—An event that will be of great importance to Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. workers throughout the South will be the opening of the Blue Ridge Association and the dedication of the buildings on the 15th of this month. During the past several months over $125,000 has been spent in the erection of buildings, which will form a group of structures to be used for carrying on Christian conferences each summer for the benefit of Southern association workers. More than 800 acres is contained in the plot of ground on which the buildings are situated, a system of macadam roads, and the buildings are equipped with water works and electric lights. The place is situated a short distance from this city, at Black Mountain, and the erection of the buildings and the fact that conferences are to be conducted during the coming summer gives Southern Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. workers their first conference ground south of the Mason and Dixon line.

From June 5 to June 15 a conference will be held for the benefit of those persons who are devoting their lives to the Young Women's Christian Association.

From June 15 to June 23 the Southern Students' Young Men's Christian Association conference will be held.

From June 25 to July 4 the missionary education movement will have charge of the meetings, which will be held for the benefit of the persons of the South who are interested in this work.

From July 5 to July 19 the Southern Secretariat Institute of the Y. M. C. A. will be held.

During each of the series of meetings prominent speakers from all parts of the country will be secured to lead the meetings and make speeches on subjects of importance to the people who are interested in the work which will be carried out. Every State in the South will be represented at the conferences, and it is expected that more than 2,000 people will attend all of the meetings.

The last month of the conferences—July 21 to August 31—will be devoted to lectures which have been arranged for the benefit of all people who are interested in Bible study.

The dormitories are handsomely furnished, and all of the club rooms are well equipped for carrying on the work which will be accomplished during the coming summer.

Approximately 2,000 Shriners, members of the Oasis and Omar Temples of North and South Carolina, will be the visiting members of the two temples. Many social events have been arranged in honor of the men who will be here at the time of the meeting, including a dance at the Langren Hotel and one at the Battery Park Hotel. Many two-banquet at the Battery Park. While here, the Shriners will be taken to the summit of Sunset Mountain over the Grove exclusive automobile road, and they will traverse the Baltimore estate in carriages.

Dr. W. H. Atwell, D. D., of Petersburg, was introduced by Rev. W. T. Williams, of Waverly, and delivered the annual address, his subject being "Some Elements of Success in Life."

At the conclusion of the address, Superintendent W. W. Edwards, awarded the scholarship medals to John W. West, Jr., and Edith Nebbett, of Waverly.

Judge J. F. West, of Waverly, then delivered to Wallace Ford a medal given by Principal Luck to the pupil in the high school writing the best essay on the "History of the Public Schools of Virginia."

Principal Luck awarded the diplomas to the members of the graduating class, and made a short address. Special certificates of award were delivered to the following pupils for being neither absent nor tardy during the entire session: Ray Tate, Arline Hollingsworth, Ruth Wilcox, Gann Cook, Virginia Edwards and Carl White.

Thakimera's
300 Men's 25c and 39c Silk Finished
Russian Cord Madras

Wash Ties
Sale price,
12 1/2c

$1.50 Soft Shirts, sale price, $1.15

$1.00 Soft Shirts, with or without collar, 59c

Save Your Furs, Carpets, Valuable Tapestries and Clothes

From depreciation and moths during the hot season. Put them in cold storage. For full information apply to or phone to Madison 262.

Merchants Cold Storage and Ice Mfg. Co.

Corner Sixth and Canal Streets, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.
Express Company will deliver packages from out-of-town customers.